

Family Connectedness:

Identifying, linking, supporting and enabling relationships, contacts, interactions and other means between and among family member in order to strengthen the family as a unit.

Family connectedness from a Family-centered, Trauma-informed, Strength-based perspective = first respecting and second enhancing family relationships