

ADA Distance Learning Sessions

Save the Date

The Bureau of Accessibility and Safety Systems (BASS) and Illinois ADA Project are inviting interested persons to attend a training session concerning issues on the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). The Illinois ADA Project is a steering committee of the DBTAC: Great Lakes ADA Center of which DHS serves as a member organization. The ADA distance learning programs being offered by Great Lakes are scheduled on the following dates:

September 16, 2008 - Latino Immigrants with Disabilities:
Challenges in Employment

BASS has arranged for three telephone conference sites below:

Chicago

Department of
Human Services
401 South Clinton Street
4TH Floor
(All dates except July 15, 2008)

Springfield

Department of
Human Services
100 S. Grand Ave East
Harris I, 2ND FL, RM 2B
(Need special badge to enter

All sessions are scheduled from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. Central Time Zone (90 minute sessions). The program is available through the Great Lakes ADA in three formats: teleconference, streaming audio and real-time caption on the Internet. All sessions will have a written transcript as well as a digital recording of the session archived on www.ada-audio.org. The schedule is subject to change.

The program is free to those who attend one of the teleconference sites arranged for by BASS. To register or if you have any questions, contact the Bureau of Accessibility and Safety Systems at 312-793-0034 (Voice), 312-793-3917 (FAX), 312-793-3597 (TTY), or 888-614-2385 (TTY). Any need for reasonable accommodations should be indicated at least two weeks in advance of the teleconference program. The Illinois ADA Project is provided by a grant (NIDRR, USDEH133A060097) through DBTAC: Great Lakes ADA Center.
